From first time visitors to long-time locals, the Telluride area continues to captivate those in search of adventure. Whether you're drawn to the dramatic beauty of our alpine environment, the intellectual allure of our arts community, or the pleasures of just kicking back and relaxing, Telluride and Mountain Village will meet and exceed your every expectation. This region, which is nestled in Colorado's most spectacular mountain range, is the perfect playground. Telluride is an alpine community, comprised of a National Landmark Historic District and a modern resort mountain village which both offer a broad variety of food, music, dance, literature, art and special events. Enjoy the spectacular, scenic ride on the free gondola that serves as a link between the historic town and the mountain village. As well as transportation, this gondola also serves as access to the upper slopes. And if pampering is a priority, we are home to one of the world's finest spas, as well as a host of local body, mind, and spirit professionals. Telluride is more than just a fabulous ski resort. Check out our variety of both indoor and outdoor winter adventures. Located in the beautiful San Juan Mountains of Southwestern Colorado, the options are endless. Guests and locals alike enjoy downhill skiing, cross country skiing, snow shoeing, horseback riding, ice climbing, ice skating, spas, yoga, and more!

Victorian Inn, Named "Best Lodging Value" by Men's Journal and Mercedes Momentum Magazine. Imagine the perfect mountain getaway at a great Telluride hotel. There are 32 tastefully appointed hotel rooms at Telluride's best location, 1 block from the gondola as well as Main Street. This places you steps away from an experience that only the Colorado Rockies can provide. All the rooms offer Cable TV, Mini refrigerators, high speed internet, hair dryers ski racks and the normal comfort amenities. Also there is a complimentary daily continental breakfast, outdoor hot tub, sauna and laundry.
