Check out their website at www.commodorecafe.com . Join your PSC friends and guest for a trip back in time to the 1600's as our local tavern on the North Side the Commodore Café transforms into a place long forgotten. Edger Allen Poe will creep out from the walls and woodwork as the local theatrical students reenact his tales from the past complete with sound effects. Our proprietor Mr. Bill will be offering tasty dinner specials and the winches will be serving Ale to quench your thirst. This night will be an experience that you won't forget. Come early and schedule a tarot card reading from the in house reader. Food, ale specials, and reading are an additional charge. Any questions please call. Mail your newsletter coupon #1 to Bettie Ann Stephenson with your check and a self-addressed stamped envelope. For more information, please contact Bettie Ann Stephenson, or send her an e-mail at b.a.stephenson@pittsburghskiclub.org .

Directions: The Commodore is next door to Mr. Bill's Tap & Grill. From Pittsburgh, take I-279 just north of town to the Perrysville exit, #12. Make a right on Perrysville Ave. and go about 1 mile. It's on your right. Park along the road. There is a small lot just beyond the building, but it says it's enforceable metered parking @ 4 quarters per hour.
