Back by popular demand! Put on your Country duds and come kick up your heels to dance the night away with your PSC friends and guest. The Buffalo Inn will be dosie doing to the calls of Scott Brown and when Scott takes a break Linda will jump right in there to do a little line dancing and boot scootn' boogie. Be ready for lots of fun, laughter, snack treats and various drinks too wet your whistle.

Directions:

From Route 88

Follow Route 88 South to the main entrance to South Park. Get into the left lane and go straight ahead into South Park on Corrigan Drive. Follow Corrigan Drive all the way through the park to the end near the Racetrack/Fairgrounds. At the stop sign, turn right onto Brownsville Road. When you have the first chance to turn left (almost immediately), turn left into the parking lot for the South Park Administration Building/County Police Barracks. Buffalo Inn is the white building located across Buffalo Drive, the road that forms the rear boundary for this parking lot.

From Lebanon Church Road & Route 51 Cloverleaf

Take Lebanon Church Road past Jefferson Memorial Cemetery, then turn left onto Brownsville Road (Curry Hotel). Continue on Brownsville Road as it bears right up the hill. Pass the South Park Golf Course on your right. Get into the left lane and stay on Brownsville Road through the light at Maple Springs Drive. Continue on Brownsville Road past the intersection with Corrigan Drive (Racetrack/Fairgrounds). When you have the first chance to turn left (almost immediately), turn left into the parking lot for the South Park Administration Building/County Police Barracks. Buffalo Inn is the white building located across Buffalo Drive, the road that forms the rear boundary for this parking lot.
