It's Halloween Eve ~ a perfect occasion to wear something black/orange/scary or put on your favorite mask and come out to the East end of town for our "Halloween Happy Hour", enjoying a ghoulish good time at Tony D'Imperio's classic Italian restaurant. Tony, born and raised during his childhood in Montagano, Italy, knows what good Italian food is all about! The decor of his restaurant is 'Tuscany' beautiful and really lends itself to an elegant, yet very relaxed atmosphere. Their Happy Hour menu includes half-price appetizers and a weekly selection of discounted beers, plus $1.00 off domestic and imported beers, wine and mixed drinks. If you'd like to try one of their favorite desserts on your own, the recipe is below! So come on out and imbibe in some Halloween potions and treats for a Spooktacular, devilish evening!

Directions:

From West: From Pittsburgh, Take I-376 East approximately 10 miles. Take US-22-BR exit 80 toward Monroeville and go approximately 1.3 miles. D'Imperios will be on the right about .4 miles past the stop light at Rodi Road..

From Turnpike and East: Follow US-22-BR West. D'Imperios is approximately 1.3 miles past Monroeville Mall on the opposite side of the highway. You may have to go up to Rodi Road and do a U-turn to get in the Eastbound lanes.
