Get out your sombreros, ponchos, maracas, and come celebrate Cinco de Mayo with your PSC friends We'll meet up at Plaza Azteca, a fairly new Mexican restaurant in the Pittsburgh area, showcasing beautiful Mexican decor and a very good food selection with generous portions. Like fresh guacamole prepared right in front of you? At Plaza Azteca, you can order the guacamole cart and ask them to make a big bowl of fresh guacamole from scratch to your liking Their menu lists more than 20 kinds of enchiladas, quesadillas and burritos, most under $10, and offering a variety of beef, pork and chicken with different sauce (try the white sauce with your salsa chips – YUM ) – and offers a half-dozen dishes for vegans. If you have room left, desserts include vanilla flan, fried ice cream and mango raspberry cheesecake. Appetizer Menu: <http://www.plazaazteca.com/#appetizers/c20ak>.

By the way, did you know that Cinco de Mayo is celebrated more in the US than in Mexico??? And, in case you're wondering, many believe that Cinco de Mayo is an observance of Mexican Independence, but the festival actually celebrates an obscure victory of 4,000 ill-equipped Mexicans over 8,000 armed French invaders in 1862, the battle known as La Batalla de Puebla (The Battle of Puebla). So join in the fiesta, wear red, green & white along with your huaraches ~ and bring along some amigos for some great Margaritas, Dos Equis and good times ~ and see what PSC is up to for the coming months

Directions:

Plaza Azteca is in Robinson Towne Centre on the other side of Park Manor Boulevard from Costco - next to IHOP.
