Meet the Beatles! Join your PSC friends for a light brunch and this classic movie. Just one month after they exploded onto the U.S. scene with their Ed Sullivan appearance, John, Paul, George, and Ringo began working on a project that would bring their revolutionary talent to the big screen. A Hard Day's Night, in which the bandmates play wily, exuberant versions of themselves, captured the astonishing moment when they officially became the singular, irreverent idols of their generation and changed music forever. Directed with raucous, anything-goes verve by Richard Lester and featuring a slew of iconic pop anthems, including the title track, "Can't Buy Me Love", "I Should Have Known Better", and "If I Fell", A Hard Day's Night is one of the most deliriously entertaining movies of all time.

Breakfast is catered by Prohibition Pastries. Brunch tickets must be ordered by the Thursday BEFORE the movie.

Film only tickets ($8) can also be purchased at the door after 10:40 am.
