Cost: FREE admission to museum

Host: TBD (Please email Helene if you would like to host this event.)

Let's visit the world's largest bicycle museum that also features other worldwide media bicycles, bobbleheads, music, art, and antiques. This is also the place to buy anything you need for your bicycle or get it tuned. There is no admission fee to tour the Museum but they accept donations. In addition, there is a free parking lot right outside of the museum.

Directions: Take the West End Bridge toward North Side (From I-376 E, take exit 69C to the bridge). At the stop light on the North Side end of the bridge, stay in the middle-right lane toward Chateau Street. Turn left onto Chateau Street. Get in the left lane on Chateau Street and go approximately 0.4 miles. The left lane becomes the turn-around (crosses under Rte 65, Ohio River Blvd). Follow signs to Beaver Avenue. Stay in the right lane of the turnaround. Continue into the right lane of Beaver Avenue and go about 200 feet. Turn right onto N Franklin Street and go 1 block to Metropolitan Street. Turn right onto Metropolitan Street and go about 0.1 miles to Columbus Avenue. Turn left onto Columbus Avenue and proceed to the Industrial Park entrance gate. Turn left into the Visitor and Delivery parking entrance. The museum and bike shop will be on your right near the end of the parking area.
