Breckenridge: Breckenridge ski resort is one of Colorado's most visited ski resorts and ski towns because it has the perfect blend of everything you could want on a ski vacation; world-class skiing for all levels, a hopping nightlife scene, great restaurants, and a historic downtown. Skiers and riders from new to seasoned have five peaks and 2,908 acres of skiable terrain to explore. A towering summit elevation of 12,998 feet, among the highest in the state, is the jumping off point for Breck's impressive 3,398 feet of vertical drop. Breckenridge ski resort is home to four award-winning terrain parks and a 22-foot superpipe. <https://breckenridge.com>

Beaver Run Breckenridge: Boasting a long list of world-class amenities and convenient access to the slopes, Beaver Run Resort is one of Breckenridge's most popular properties. This ski-in/ski-out property is located on the ski run above the base of Peak 9, making it an excellent choice for the skier or snowboarder looking to get as much time on the slopes as possible. Beaver Run Resort offers a variety of amenities including an indoor/outdoor heated pool, a second outdoor pool, nine outdoor hot tubs, an exercise room, saunas and steam rooms, video arcade, retail stores, mini market/deli, bars and restaurants, ski and snowboard rental shops, business center, and complimentary in-town shuttle. <https://www.beaverun.com>
